Section 1.02 This Agreement shall have effect only on the property of the Co-op and shall cover all work thereon coming under the jurisdiction of the Union as usually performed by the employees of the Co-op listed in the employees' classifications of Article 6 of this Agreement.

Section 1.03 It is agreed between the parties thereto that all present and new employees, also former employees returning to work, shall be and remain or be required to become and remain, respectively, members of the Union as a condition of employment hereunder. The Co-op shall notify the Business Manager of the Union of the date of employment and classification of each new and/or re-employed employee and shall refer them to the representative of the Union for instruction and advice concerning the union shop requirements of this Agreement. All such employees shall serve a ninety (90) day probationary period. All such employees shall arrange with the Union for membership therein on the thirty-first (31st) day of employment under this Agreement or the effective date of this Agreement, whichever is later. It is understood that all such employees in their ninety (90) day probationary period do not waive their rights to the terms and conditions in Article 3. Termination for cause will be the only exception.

Section 1.04 It is understood and agreed that no member of the Union shall be discriminated against or denied employment because of his activities in matters affecting the Union unless such activities result in destruction or attempted destruction of the Co-op's property.

Section 1.05 In the event that any of the provisions of this Agreement shall conflict with any state or federal law or presidential regulation, such provisions shall be deemed to be modified sufficient in respect to either or both parties to the extent necessary to comply with such laws or regulations and the remaining portion of this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect.

Section 1.06 Temporary Employees: Employees hired for 120 working days or less and designated by the Co-op as Temporary Employees shall not be covered by or entitled to the benefits of the provisions of Articles 2, 3, 4, 6, 7, 8 or 9 of this Agreement and shall not be paid more per hour than a regular employee with less than seven (7) months service.

Section 1.07 The Co-op agrees to deduct from the wages of employees covered by this Agreement who individually and voluntarily execute a payroll deduction authorization for membership dues or service fees in the amount equal to Union dues and initiation fees. The Union shall, at its expense, supply the authorization forms and dues or service fee deduction guidelines. The Co-op will forward monthly to the Union the aggregate of the deductions accompanied by a statement indicating the names of the employees and the amount of deduction for each. The deduction will come out of the last pay period each month for the next month's dues or service fee.

ARTICLE 2 - SENIORITY

Section 2.01 Seniority for each regular paid employee who has been employed as such for six (6) months within a period of twelve (12) consecutive months in the classifications covered by this Agreement shall begin as of the first (1st) day of such employment unless his seniority has been broken as herein provided in Section 2.03 and he is re-employed, then and in that event his seniority, after having been re-employed, for a period of six (6) months within a period of twelve (12) consecutive months, shall begin on the first (1st) date of reemployment after his most recent loss of seniority hereunder.

The foregoing shall not alter or affect seniority rights such as vacations, sick leave, annuities or other benefits and privileges to which such regular employee may be entitled for service with the Co-op prior to being employed or re-employed hereunder.

Section 2.02 When making a reduction in the number of employees due to lack of work and when rehiring, the following procedure shall govern.

- A. Employees who have not established seniority with the Co-op shall be laid off first.

- B. Thereafter, employees shall be laid off in the inverse order of their established seniority; provided, however, that no Apprentice with less than two (2) years employment as such shall have preference in layoffs over Journeyman in the same classification who have established seniority under this Agreement.
- C. The foregoing provisions of (A) and (B) need not apply when the application thereof would result in the Co-op being required to layoff employees possessed of skills essential to properly perform the work available at the time of the layoff not possessed by employees having established greater seniority; provided that an employee with greater seniority shall have shown that he cannot properly perform the work after a reasonable opportunity based on the position to attempt to perform such work.
- D. When adding employees, those having established seniority most recently laid off on account of curtailment of work shall be the first among those holding seniority to be reemployed, if available, and physically able to return to work providing they have the qualifications required.

Section 2.03 Seniority shall be deemed to have been broken for the following reasons:

- A. If the employee resigns.
- B. If the employee is discharged and not reinstated.
- C. If the employee is absent from work without authorized leave except when satisfactory reasons for his absence are given.

- D. If an employee who has been laid off fails to return to work within five (5) days after being properly notified to report to work and does not give a satisfactory reason for failing to report.
- E. In the event that an employee with two (2) or more years of service is laid off in excess of twelve (12) consecutive months, then the seniority of such employees shall terminate.

Section 2.04 Promotions to job vacancies shall be based on seniority, ability and qualifications; ability and qualifications being sufficient, seniority shall prevail.

- A. Should an employee decline to bid on a vacancy, it shall have no effect on his future ability to bid.
- B. An employee promoted to a new position will be given a reasonable opportunity based on the position to demonstrate his qualifications and ability. If he does not qualify in that time period, he shall be returned to the position he formerly held.
- C. If no bargaining unit employees bid on the vacancy, the Co-op may fill the vacancy at its own discretion.
- D. When vacancies occur or when new positions are created within the classifications listed in Article 6 of this Agreement, the Co-op will post a notice on bulletin boards for a period of three (3) days (Sundays and holidays excluded) announcing the position open. Employees desiring to be considered shall make written application to the Manager. Employees on vacation will be notified of a posting by the Co-op. When necessary, temporary assignments will be made for the period the position is considered open.

- E. In no event will an employee in the Central Office classification have the right to bid for any opening as a Communications Man. The Co-op will, however, discuss and consider any request for such transfer.

Section 2.05 An employee who has established seniority, if he can be separated from duty, may be granted a leave of absence upon approval from the Co-op and while on such leave, he shall not forfeit any such seniority he may heretofore have established provided he does not overstay his leave or accept employment elsewhere while on such leave without the approval of the Co-op.

- A. Notwithstanding any of the other terms hereof, an employee who has been laid off shall be deemed to have lost all accumulated seniority and all right to be re-employed unless he registers with the Co-op either in person or by registered mail, at least once a year during the month of December.
- B. Any written notice to be given under this Agreement shall be deemed properly given when deposited in the United States Post Office under registered mail addressed to the last known address.

Section 2.06 An employee who is injured while in the employ of the Co-op shall continue to accumulate seniority and upon recovery shall be reinstated to his former position with full seniority, providing he makes application to return to work within five (5) days after he is pronounced recovered by the Co-op's physician, if he is physically qualified to return to work.

Section 2.07 The Co-op and the Union may by mutual agreement suspend or alter the provisions of this Article in case of mutual desire to provide employment for an employee who has been particularly disabled while in the employ of the Co-op on or off duty or while on authorized leave serving in the United States Military Service.

ARTICLE 3 - GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

Section 3.01 A grievance is defined as any dispute which reasonably concerns the application, interpretation or violation of any express or specific provision of this Agreement.

The Union agrees to present and appeal any grievance within the time limits set out in the respective steps of the grievance procedure, unless a mutual extension of time limits is agreed to.

The Co-op agrees that it will meet with an employee and Union representative and subsequently respond within the time limits set out in the respected steps of the grievance procedure.

Grievances which affect all or a large group of employees, or which have general application, may be presented directly for handling at Step 2.

Any grievance arising over the application or interpretation of the provisions of this Agreement shall be settled as soon as possible in the following manner:

Step 1. An employee having a grievance shall present it to his/her immediate supervisor within two (2) working days of knowledge of the occurrence of the incident.

Step 2. If satisfactory settlement is not reached, the grievant may reduce the grievance to writing and present it to the General Manager within four (4) working days of the occurrence of the incident.

Representative of the Union, the General Manager, the Union Steward and the Grievant then shall meet and attempt to resolve the dispute.

Step 4. Either party shall have the right to submit the grievance to arbitration. Notification in writing of a desire to submit a grievance to arbitration must be given within thirty (30) working days after completing Step 3.

Section 3.02 Nothing contained herein shall be construed to circumvent the right of an employee to take a grievance up with the Co-op and have the same settled; provided settlement is not inconsistent with any of the provisions of this Agreement, and further provided the Union has been given the opportunity to have a representative present at the time of the settlement.

ARTICLE 4 - ARBITRATION PROCEDURE

Section 4.01 If the grievance or matter in dispute is not settled under the grievance procedure as set forth above, the aggrieved party may refer the matter to arbitration by serving notice on the other party of the desire to arbitrate the dispute within thirty (30) days from the date the matter was handled in the final step of the grievance procedure.

Section 4.02 If the Co-op and the Union agree on a single arbitrator, the grievance shall be presented to the arbitrator for final determination. Should the Co-op and the Union fail to agree on a single arbitrator, they shall immediately request that Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service submit a panel of seven (7) arbitrators. Either party may reject one (1) panel in which case a new panel shall be requested. Each party shall alternatively strike one (1) name from the list, and the one (1) remaining name shall be the arbitrator. Either party may order the proceedings to be recorded or transcribed, but whichever party does so, shall bear the cost of such record or transcription unless the other party desires a copy, in which case the cost of the record is ordered and borne equally by the parties. Where the record is ordered and paid for by only one (1) party, a copy thereof will not be made available to the other party. Any such record shall become the official record of the proceedings.

Section 4.03 In arriving at a decision, the arbitrator shall not have the power to delete from, add to, or in any way modify the provisions of the Agreement. The arbitrator's decision will be final and binding upon both parties, providing the decision complies with the provisions of the first paragraph of Section 7.01.

Section 4.04 If either party, after due notice thereof, should fail to appear or present its case or defense in an arbitration hearing, the arbitrator is authorized to hear and decide the case on the basis of the evidence present.

Section 4.05 The fees and expense of the arbitrator shall be borne equally by the parties.

Nothing in this Section will limit the Union from taking any action against any Co-op customers or suppliers if the Union has an independent dispute with that customer or supplier.

Section 5.02 Any employee engaging in, participating in, or encouraging a violation of Section 5.01 may be disciplined or discharged by the Co-op in its discretion, subject to the grievance procedure on the sole issue of whether or not the employee or employees so disciplined or discharged in fact engaged in a violation of this Article.
